Renaissance snack collections

Renaissance is collecting snack donations to cheer on our sophomores as they take their ISTEP 10 tests in March. We are asking for mints, dum dum suckers, airheads, starbursts, m&m's (small individual packs), muffin packs, cookies (snack bag sized), and goldfish (individual snack bags sized). Please have your child bring donations to Mrs. Garlock's room by February 22nd. Thanks, LHS Renaissance Club!

Looking for Academic Bowl Team members

The 2019 Academic Bowl Team is looking for creative problem solvers, who love ancient history. Our 2019 theme is "the Fertile Crescent" (Mesopotamia and Ancient Egypt). We have 4 subject squads for both Grades 7-8 and 9-12: English (Mrs Garlock), Math (Mr. Hudson), Social Studies (Ms Beckort) and Science (Mrs Hussung). If you are interested, please see the subject coach or Ms Beckort for an application. We also have a Fine Arts squad for Grades 9-12 only, see Mr Henke if you are interested in joining.

Jr High Regional Saturday April 26 with an invitational here at Lanesville on April 6

High School Regional Tuesday, April 16 with an invitational at Corydon Central on March 7

We will have study days held during the school day in January, February, March & April. First study day is Wednesday, January 16. Hope you will consider join the fun

Spelling Bee

Congrats to 7th grader Jaylie Parr on her 2nd place standing at the Harrison County Spelling Bee on February 4. Jaylie will serve as alternate in representing Harrison County at the Kentucky Derby Spelling Bee on March 16. Great Job, Jaylie.

Library help needed

The library needs volunteers to help with elementary check out and keeping library during Ms Beckort's 7th period class. We need help on any Monday or Tuesday and on 1st and 3rd Thursdays. You can schedule for 1 day per month, odd or even weeks or every week. We greatly appreciate your consideration of giving to our students. You must have a limited background check on file to volunteer in the library. If you have any questions, please contact Ms Beckort at x 262 or beckortm@lanesville.k12.in.us Thank you in advance.
